South Shores Update

Last night was the MB Park Planning Committee meeting. We left that meeting very excited. Here is what you need to know. Our collective efforts this year (Project Squeaky Wheel) seems to have yielded positive results on both sides of the bay.

Pumping the brakes on DeAnza Natural, and accelerating South Shores GDP, with SDMBBSC in a 1st priority position.

The Boat club was listed at the top of the 1st slide of the South Shores presentation from the City Planning team. We were also a point of reference in many of the supplemental slides.

The amount of juicy information is enough to require a full video briefing, but let me give you a couple of bullet points:

- DeAnza Natural is 3 years out before they start a GDP
    And there is “no funding” until now
- South Shores GDP started now with approval request expected Spring 2025
- The 4-acre lot reserved for us is “Amazing”!

Sea You at the Club!

OCTOBER 2023

www.ikunakoa.com

This has been a great Summer season for Ikuna Koa OCC, as we successfully participated in the Queen Liliuokalani Iron Race on 2 September 2023 in Kona on the Big Island of Hawaii. Both teams participated in the 18 mile paddle. We sent 2 crews, a wahine(womens') and kane(mens') crew.

The Queen Liliuokalani Race consists of several days of races and paddling events. Saturday is an all day event of long 18 mile races with a torch parade down the middle of Kona Town in the evening. Out of respect for Maui and the recent fires instead of fire torches, flashlight torches were held for the parade.

On Sunday there is a short 4-6 mile double hull canoe race. This is a fun event and 12 people race in 2 canoes strapped next to each other. It's a fast sprint and a lot of fun.

The IKOCC team and friends competed the race then jumped off the pier together.
